STRATEGIC THINKING

1. Learner®

What Is Learner?

People with strong Learner talents constantly strive to learn and improve. The process of learning is just as important to them as the knowledge they gain. The steady and deliberate journey from ignorance to competence energizes Learners. The thrill of learning new facts, beginning a new subject and mastering an important skill excites people with dominant Learner talents. Learning builds these people's confidence. Having Learner as a dominant theme does not necessarily motivate someone to become a subject-matter expert or strive for the respect that accompanies earning a professional or academic credential. The outcome of learning is less significant than the "getting there."

Why Your Learner Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

LearnerInput*Focus*Belief*Futuristic

It's very likely that you feel upbeat about life when you can register for demanding and rigorous classes. You probably aspire to enroll in specialized courses. Why? You trust yourself to meet the challenges. You know you will acquire lots of knowledge or special skills.

Because of your strengths, you might place a high value on seeking and gathering specific kinds of information. Perhaps your need to be informed motivates you to acquire knowledge so you are as smart as you want to be about certain subjects.

Instinctively, you enjoy establishing objectives in the company of others. Using well-placed milestones, you document knowledge and skills gained since the last reporting period. You probably look forward to reviewing results with individuals who understand education is a process that continues throughout one's life.

Chances are good that you occasionally collect bits and pieces of information. At the time, the value of this material may not be apparent. In specific cases, you have found it useful to turn to some specialists for help. Perhaps these individuals can provide you with enough direction so you can ask some questions, render a few decisions, or try to map courses of action without upsetting anyone in the process. You avoid angering certain people by consulting with them before doing anything.

By nature, you regularly apply yourself to scholarly pursuits. For hours, you think seriously about various issues or ideas. You feel very optimistic about life when you can dedicate yourself to your studies. You typically resist the temptation to quit when obstacles, interruptions, or difficulties momentarily break your concentration.

How Learner Blends With Your Other Top Five Strengths

LEARNER + INPUT

As a natural student/teacher, you love the process of learning, and you are always looking for useful resources that can enhance learning.

LEARNER + FOCUS

In many cases, your interests shape your intentions. But there are also times when your intentions shape your interests.

LEARNER + BELIEF

While your mind is certain and unchanging about a few important matters, it remains curious and open about many other things.

LEARNER + FUTURISTIC

Your willingness to embrace new concepts and encounter new experiences stimulates your visions of inspiring possibilities.

Apply Your Learner to Succeed

Develop expertise in areas that interest you the most.

- ☐ Regularly study new topics and skills. Challenge yourself to learn about complex ideas, programs or experiences others might not want to explore.
- ☐ Refine how you develop your expertise. For example, you might learn best by beginning a new project; if so, find new tasks or projects to start. Or you might learn best by teaching; if so, find ways to present to others.

STRATEGIC THINKING

2. Input®

What Is Input?

People with strong Input talents are inquisitive and always want to know more. They crave information. They might collect ideas, books, memorabilia, quotations or facts. Whatever they collect, they do so because it interests them. They find many things interesting and have a natural curiosity. The world is exciting precisely because of its infinite variety and complexity. A few minutes spent surfing the internet may turn into hours once their curiosity takes off. They constantly acquire, compile and file things away. Their pursuits keep their minds fresh. They know that one day the information or things they've gathered will prove valuable.

Why Your Input Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

Futuristic

By nature, you are comfortable saying, "I am a fine educator." You probably converse with others in your field about ideas, theories, or concepts to gather the latest thinking. Using these insights, you are apt to draw your students into discussions that entice them to explore topics. You want them to really understand the subject rather than memorize a few facts just to pass a test.

Instinctively, you can escape the tension, pressure, or stress of everyday life by reading a good book, diving into a publication's articles, or pulling up information on the Internet. You are apt to take reading material with you on vacations, business trips, rest breaks at work, or tables for one at restaurants. You routinely dog-ear pages, underline key ideas, or scribble notes in the margins so your latest discoveries can be easily retrieved.

Driven by your talents, you usually feel upbeat about your life when you engage in mentally stimulating conversations with people who are curious or smart.

Chances are good that you enjoy reading about topics that fascinate you. People are not surprised to find you with your nose in a book and reading all the time. When a subject intrigues you, you review a wide range of materials. You gather as much information as you possibly can about your areas of greatest interest.

Because of your strengths, you employ your passion for reading to collect lots of good ideas for resolving issues, fixing mistakes, or overcoming obstacles. The act of reading allows you to generate options for dealing with all sorts of predicaments — that is, difficult, perplexing, or trying situations.

How Input Blends With Your Other Top Five Strengths

INPUT + LEARNER

As a natural student/teacher, you love the process of learning, and you are always looking for useful resources that can enhance learning.

INPUT + FOCUS

You are always on the lookout for useful, tangible resources that could facilitate someone's efforts to meet a goal or get a result.

INPUT + BELIEF

You are faithful in your commitment to your values and resourceful in how you live them out and express them to others in tangible ways.

INPUT + FUTURISTIC

When you anticipate and imagine, you create dreams, and when you gather tangible and useful resources, dreams become reality.

Apply Your Input to Succeed

Find different ways to gather and organize resources.

- ☐ Develop a system for storing and easily finding information to share with others. This can be as simple as an email folder setup or as sophisticated as a computer database. This system will help you quickly locate information that you can share with others.
- ☐ Meet with people interested in learning about the information you have collected. During your conversation, ask them to help you by taking notes or recording the talk. This could be another way to keep track of your resources.

EXECUTING

3. Focus®

What Is Focus?

People with strong Focus talents prioritize and then take action. They set goals that serve as their compass, helping them determine priorities and make alterations when needed to get back on course. Their Focus is powerful because it forces them to filter; they instinctively evaluate each action before taking it to decide whether it will help them reach their goal. In the end, strong Focus talents push them to be efficient. They are extremely valuable team members because their single-mindedness enhances the speed and quality of their performance and keeps the team on track.

Why Your Focus Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

LearnerInput*Focus*Belief*Futuristic

Chances are good that you are determined to be in charge of your own destiny. This is your life. You intend to be the ultimate decision maker regarding personal and professional matters.

Because of your strengths, you are typically exasperated by people who cannot set a clear direction for themselves. You can become annoyed by their inability to ignore distractions that prevent them from reaching their goals, meeting their deadlines, or following their plans.

By nature, you customarily use reason to govern what you do and how you do it. You probably take charge of activities that directly affect the quality and/or direction of your life. You refuse to let anyone determine your destiny.

It's very likely that you take charge of your future. You are determined to shape it as you wish. You probably spend a lot of time thinking about your goals. You are driven to create the experiences you desire. You tend to agree with the notion "If you can think it, you can make it happen."

Instinctively, you ordinarily feel exuberant about life when you define what you want to accomplish in the coming months, years, or decades. Outlining the steps to reach each objective often inspires you to track how much closer you are to a goal today than you were yesterday. Having that information is sure to make your life more satisfying.

How Focus Blends With Your Other Top Five Strengths

FOCUS + LEARNER

In many cases, your interests shape your intentions. But there are also times when your intentions shape your interests.

FOCUS + INPUT

You are always on the lookout for useful, tangible resources that could facilitate someone's efforts to meet a goal or get a result.

FOCUS + BELIEF

Your commitment to an important cause is unwavering because you are seldom distracted by secondary or peripheral matters.

FOCUS + FUTURISTIC

Your future dreams become realities when you concentrate your daily efforts on each incremental step along the way.

Apply Your Focus to Succeed

Decide what you must do, prioritize and then act.

- ☐ Say no to projects or tasks that do not align with your end goal. While you can't always say no, when you can, it will help you concentrate on your most important priorities.
- ☐ Trust your internal compass to make necessary adjustments as you work toward a goal. You have an instinct that ensures things will not distract you as you work to achieve the desired outcome.

EXECUTING

4. Belief®

What Is Belief?

People with strong Belief talents have enduring principles that they live by. These values vary from one person to another, but those with powerful Belief talents have deeply held ideals and a strong sense of purpose in their lives. These core values affect their behavior in many ways. Their sense of mission gives their lives meaning and direction; in their view, success is more than money and prestige. Their Belief talents guide them through temptations and distractions toward a consistent set of priorities. This consistency is the foundation for their relationships. Others view them as dependable and trustworthy.

Why Your Belief Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

LearnerInput*Focus*Belief*Futuristic

Instinctively, you analyze the lessons of the past to find clues for handling future situations. Piecing together the causes and effects of historical events allows you to discover alternate routes to your goal. You are seldom taken by surprise. Why? You probably have studied your options and crafted innovative solutions.

It's very likely that you place more importance on the purpose and value of what you do than on the monetary rewards that accompany success.

Chances are good that you sense your life has deep meaning. With remarkable vividness, you often imagine where you will be, what you will be doing, and what you have the ability to accomplish in the coming months, years, or decades. Your dreams of tomorrow are very alive in your mind today. You intentionally strive to transform these possibilities into reality.

Driven by your talents, you feel much better about yourself and life in general when you have a worthwhile cause or project to which you can dedicate your mind, body, and spirit.

Because of your strengths, you are inclined to make sacrifices that benefit someone else. You enjoy being generous with your time, knowledge, skills, experiences, resources, or possessions.

BELIEF + FOCUS

Your commitment to an important cause is unwavering because you are seldom distracted by secondary or peripheral matters.

BELIEF + FUTURISTIC

Your core values play a significant role in shaping your vision for the future and in giving you the passion to pursue it.

Apply Your Belief to Succeed

Reflect on your values and how they play a part in your everyday life.

- ☐ Think about your best day to better understand what you like the most about what you do daily. How did your values contribute to the satisfaction you felt that day? What can you do to have more days like your best?
- ☐ Find a cause that matters to you and actively support it. Not just believing in something, but also getting involved, helps to fuel your passion even more.

STRATEGIC THINKING

5. Futuristic®

What Is Futuristic?

People with strong Futuristic talents love to peer over the horizon. They are fascinated by the future. They anticipate and imagine in detail what tomorrow could or should be. They usually see the future positively. While the details of the picture will depend on their other strengths and interests — a better product, a better team, a better life or a better world — it will always inspire them. This vision energizes themselves and others. They can paint a picture of the future for their team members.

Why Your Futuristic Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

LearnerInput*Focus*Belief*Futuristic

It's very likely that you envision what you can accomplish tomorrow, next week, next month, next year, or in the coming decades. Your goals and aspirations motivate you to keep moving forward. The tension you feel when a deadline is fast approaching forces you to concentrate on the right activities, discard irrelevant information, and not waste time on intriguing distractions. Your one aim is to reach your objectives.

Because of your strengths, you treasure the one-on-one conversations you have with visionary thinkers. Their ideas can force you to expand on your plans for the future.

Driven by your talents, you feel enthusiastic about life when you contemplate everything you can accomplish in the coming months, years, or decades. You probably need to know what the future holds before you can concentrate on today's activities.

By nature, you have a capacity for envisioning what the coming months, years, or decades could, should, or will be like. Frequently you are prompted to transform your ideas into things you can touch, taste, see, smell, or hear.

Instinctively, you invest considerable time creating the future of your own choosing. You frequently share your ideas about what will be possible in the coming months, years, and decades. You probably capture people's attention whenever you describe in vivid detail what you imagine.
